The Journal of Urgent Care (JUCM) is our specialties only dedicated publication. Based out of the USA, the JUCM – (ISSN 19380011) supports the evolution of urgent care medicine by creating content that addresses both the clinical practice of urgent care medicine and the practice management challenges of keeping pace with an ever-changing healthcare marketplace. As the Official Publication of the Urgent Care Association and the College of Urgent Care Medicine, JUCM seeks to provide a forum for the exchange of ideas regarding the clinical and business best practices for running an urgent care centre.

We are delighted to welcome the Editor in Chief of the JUCM, Dr Joshua Russell, to New Zealand. Josh is a Fellow of the American College of Emergency Physicians and a Fellow of the College of Urgent Care Medicine and works clinically in both areas. Josh has supported our Bootcamp in previous years via video conference, so it is wonderful to be able to connect with him in person this year. Urgent care is a global speciality that is rapidly growing and proving essential to healthcare systems around the world. Josh shares our passion for urgent care, and we look forward to hearing his thoughts throughout the weekend.

Anyone interested in publishing with the JUCM should speak with Josh this weekend or follow the link below.
